Raul Velez is an attorney in the Auburn Office. He is a graduate of California State University, Northridge (B.A.) and Syracuse University College of Law (J.D.). While at Syracuse College of Law, Raul was a member of the Moot Court Honor Society and the Syracuse Trial Team. As a member of the Syracuse Trial Team, Raul went on to win two regional championships and place 5th in the nation at the American Association for Justice Trial Competition. Raul also received the CALI Excellence for the Future Award in Trial Practice, the Lee Michaels Award for Trial Advocacy, and was a finalist in the Lionel L. Grossman Trial Competition.

Prior to joining the firm, Raul interned with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission's Enforcement Division in Washington, DC. Raul is also the founder of Phi Lambda Nu, a service-based fraternity whose purpose is to serve at-risk male youth in Los Angeles.

Outside the practice of law, Raul is an avid dancer and paints during his free time.
