Karl Williams serves as Professor and has been a member of the Wegmans School of Pharmacy, St John Fisher College faculty since 2007. He teaches courses in Pharmacy Law, Ethics, and Clinical Counseling. His continuing professional mission is to improve public health through direct patient education about pharmacotherapy; enabling patients to identify therapeutic effect, recognize and manage side-effects, and achieve success in medication therapy.

He has authored over 200 scholarly works and presentations with topics including patient safety, risk minimization, professional practice, civil rights, labor, ethical corporate management, and education. Dr. Williams is a contributing member of the Editorial Board of the Journal of Pharmacy Practice. He is licensed to practice pharmacy in New York, Kentucky, the New England states, and Virginia, and is admitted to practice law in New York and Kentucky.

Including serving as General Counsel to the American Foundation for Pharmaceutical Education, Dr. Williams is active in numerous professional organizations, including the New York State Bar Association, the Pharmacy Society of Rochester and the Rochester-area Society of Health System Pharmacists. In addition, he is currently serving on the Board of Directors of the Pharmacists Society of the State of New York. Dr. Williams serves as a pro bono trial officer on the Surrogate Decision Making Committee for the NYS Justice Center.
