

Fourth Annual Elder and Special Needs Law Journal Writing Competition

The Elder and Special Needs Section of the New York State Bar Association continues to strive to achieve a diverse membership body, in hopes of fostering a rich environment within which ideas are cultivated.

Topic: Any law or legal issue affecting seniors and/or persons with disabilities or special needs, with a specific focus on historically underserved populations. Examples include, but are not limited to, access to services and quality of life issues, healthcare and housing.

Eligibility: All students attending an accredited ABA law school within New York State and recent law graduates seeking employment.

Awards: The winners of the “Fourth Annual Elder and Special Needs Law Journal Writing Competition,” will be guaranteed publication within the New York State Bar Association’s Elder and Special Needs Law Journal (ESNLJ). In addition, there will be two $1,000 prizes.

Format: Submit the article in the form of a word document. Please do not use Work Perfect or .docx. The article should contain endnotes in Arabic numerals, and all sources should be attributed in Bluebook format. Contact the Production Editor for further details or your Office of Student Life. Production Editor is Katy Carpenter, Juris Doctor 2016, KCarpenter@WPLawNY.com.
