

The Torts, Insurance and Compensation Law Section – Supporting Attorneys at Trial for More Than 50 Years

About the Torts, Insurance and Compensation Law Section

The Section is unique in that it focuses on substantive and procedural issues facing attorneys practicing in torts, insurance and compensation law. It consists of both plaintiffs and defense attorneys. The Committees reflect the focus of the Section, with over 20 Committees and Divisions as listed inside. Some include:

- Automobile Liability
- Information Technology
- Insurance Coverage
- Toxic Tort

Section members can communicate with each other on legal issues through an online community. In addition, a number of events are held throughout the year offering members the chance to network, increase their knowledge and exchange ideas with colleagues who share their interests.

Exclusive Online Resources

As a member of the Section you have access to our website: www.nysba.org/ticl. Among the resources available for Section members on the website is the TICL Section Community.

Access our Section's archived publications at www.nysba.org/sectionpubs.

Why Join?

- Network with attorneys across New York State;
- Receive the Section's Journal with timely and relevant articles;
- Stay informed of legal and procedural issues in your practice area;
- Access an online community to network and ask questions of attorneys across the State;
- Advocate positions on pending legislation affecting practitioners;
- The Section supports mentorship opportunities for attorneys of diverse backgrounds;
- The Section warmly welcomes families and friends to its destination meetings, which feature inclusive activities as well as great CLE.
